

PROFILE OF MS. NANDINI GORE

Ms. Nandini Gore is a Senior Partner at Karanjawala and Co., Advocates and Advocate on Record practices before the Supreme Court of India and specializes in Litigation, Arbitration, Corporate practice and Mediation practice. She has perused her LLB & LLM from Campus Law Centre, New Delhi. Ms. Gore has been ranked by Chambers and Partners Asia 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018 for her outstanding service in the field of litigation. She has also been listed by the Lawyer's World 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018 in the Premier 500 category. She has been awarded as Prominent Women in Law Award 2016. She has also figured in Leaders in Law in commercial litigation and mediation for 2017. Ms. Gore is known for her drafting skills and all-round knowledge of rules and procedures, particularly for her expertise in handling complex, corporate & constitutional matters in the Supreme Court for the Firm. She has also handled high profile royal family disputes, matters pertaining to environment and vehicular pollution, matters involving the laws relating to mining or iron, ore and coal and also disputes relating to drugs and pharmaceuticals. Apart from Supreme Court practice, she also attends to matters in high courts on a pan-India basis, Appellate Tribunal for Electricity, National Green Tribunal, Company Law Board, Mines Tribunal etc.

Ms. Gore is a certified mediator from the Supreme Court of India on the panel of Supreme Court Mediation Committee. In addition, she has acted as mediator in various high-profile matters. She has attended the Advance Training Programme in Mediation conducted by the Mediation and Conciliation Committee of the Supreme Court of India. She has also attended the Advance Course on Mediation at the International Academy of Mediators at Toronto, the 2014 Fall Conference organized by the Chicago Bar Association and International Academy of Mediators in Chicago and the Fall Conference 2015 organized by the International Academy of Mediators in Baltimore. She also attends Advance Training conference in Mediation at San Francisco, USA. She has conducted several training sessions on mediation, including the session at the Asia Pacific International Mediation Summit, 2015 held in New Delhi. Ms. Gore has also attended Global Fall Conference 2016 on Mediation and Alternate Dispute Resolution at Singapore and Global Pound Conference 2017 at Chandigarh, New Delhi where she was invited as a speaker. She has attended International Academy of Mediators Fall Conference USA in November, 2017 at Austin, USA. She has also been giving lectures on mediation at various law colleges and has been invited as a Judge in Mediation and Conciliation Competitions. Mrs. Gore has also done advanced training in mediation conducted by Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Government of India and is also on the prestigious panel of Mediators appointed by the Government of India for mediation before the Company Law Board (NCLT). She has been previously elected as the Secretary of Supreme Court Advocates-On-Record Association. She is the Vice President of Mediators India and Distinguish Fellow of International Academy of Mediators.

Ms. Gore has been trained in time limited and advanced mediation techniques. She specializes in high conflict mediations involving partnerships, employment disputes, probate, real estate, commercial, civil lawsuits, matrimonial and family disputes. She has successfully resolved hundreds of disputes both privately and as a court appointed mediator and has specialized her skills in On-Line Mediation from London and also authored book on Mediation titled as "Handbook on Mediation". Her pragmatism and all-round professionalism has been highly valued by clients.